Producers: Greg Ellis, Hans Christian, and Dave Stringer

Top Cuts: "Shivo'ham, Shivo'ham", "Ganashyama"

Summary: The long-awaited release from one of L.A.'s top world music producers/composers is a refreshing blend of American-based folk-rock tunes with traditional North Indian influenced mantras. Stringer's devotional touches as a singer tend to really shine on the more spiritually rich tunes like "Shivo' Ham, Shivo' Ham" and "Ganashyama." The production is clear and sweet bringing out some impressive performances by many of the great players of today's jazz, world and new age music communities.
